21   A.

22   On motion of the Government involving an alleged violation of conditions of pretrial release, and a warrant for arrest,

23   B.

24   The court finds there is:

25   (1)

26

        (A)   ( )   Probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a 27
                    Federal, State, or local crime while on release and/or 28
        (B)   (✓)   Clear and convincing evidence that the defendant has violated any

1   any other condition of release; and

2 (2)   (A)   (~~ ~~)   Based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3142(g), there is no

3   condition or combination of conditions of release that will

4   assure that the defendant will not flee or pose a danger to the

5   safety or any other person or the community; or

6   (B)   ( )   The defendant is unlikely to abide by any condition or

7   combination of conditions of release.

8 (3)   ( )   There is probable cause to believe that, while on release, the 9   defendant committed a Federal, State, or local felony, and the

10   presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will

11   assure that the person will not pose a danger to the safety of any

12   other person or the community has not been rebutted.

13   OR

14 (4)   ( )   The court finds that there are conditions of release that will

15   assure that the defendant will not flee or pose a danger to the

16   safety any other person or the community, and that the

17   defendant will abide by such conditions. See separate Order

18   setting conditions.

19   ( )   It is further ordered that this order is stayed for72 hours in order

20   to allow the Government to seek review from the assigned

21   district judge or criminal duty district judge as appropriate.
